Interview Scene

**copy and paste questions into your own document, include your name/class/block

*(Come up with an interview scene where you are both playing characters that are not yourselves. You will have an opportunity to be both the interviewer and the interviewee.
**For the script you write you are the interviewee!)*

Tips:

- The interviewer can be as interesting as the interviewee
- Don't waste time with boring/general questions, start from a specific viewpoint or have an interesting newsworthy item to discuss

Example:

boring/general: Who are you?

Interesting: I'm here with Doctor Flugenhammer and he is going to discuss his amazing age reversing formula creating from rotting banana peel extract!

BACKGROUND (2 points)

1. What interview or talk shows have you seen?

I don't remember any interview scenes that deal with American celebrities, but I have seen a lot of interviews of Korean celebrities in talk shows.

2. On what interview show would you like to be? About what would you like to be interviewed?

I would like to be in a interview for product I have created in a product overview show.

FIVE IDEAS FOR INTERVIEW SITUATIONS (5 points)

(list interviewer, interviewee, and setting)

1. An excited young interviewer asking an old interviewee, who's being annoyed by the interviewer, about a successful movie production has been created during the time period of old 1980s.

2. An interviewer wants a direct answer, but the interviewee is Steve Jobs is busy explaining about his new products, takes time in the modern days

3. An interviewer asking directly criticizing questions to a soccer player who should not really be in the national team. This takes time in the modern days.

4. A naive student asking his successful dad about his early days for his school assignment. This takes place in the modern days.

5. An interviewer very tired from sleep deprivation needs to sleep, and the interviewee is very boring to listen to. The interviewee talks about his turning point in life when he becomes successful with help from his friend.

CHOSEN IDEA (1 point)

An interviewer wants a direct answer, but the interviewee is Steve Jobs is busy explaining about his new products, takes time in the modern days

TEN IDEAS FOR QUESTIONS OR EVENTS DURING THE INTERVIEW (10 points)

1. Interviewer is really bored, while Steve Jobs explains about how successful he became with his newest computer

2. Interviewer asks Steve Jobs to stop digressing

3. Steve talks about the newest iphone, also introducing the price

4. interviewer gets irritated and yells at Steve Jobs to answer the questions

5. At first, interviewer gets so excited to interview Steve Jobs

6. later the interviewer sleeps and forgets to ask questions
7. talk about his boring childhood, how unsuccessful he was before
8. in the middle of each conversations, advertise the price, and the place where the people can buy the product. Also explain why people buy such thing
9. Interviewer gets mad about all the advertisement Steve Jobs is making
10. Advertisements about itunes

ENDING (2 points)

The interviewer tries to end the show by saying "CUT," but Steve Jobs is indifferent about what the Interviewer tells him. Interviewer leaves the stage realized he can't do anything to Steve Jobs. Steve Jobs is busy talking about all the advertisements he wants to make.

SCRIPT/QUESTIONS - (minimum 10 Questions and Answers) (10 points) interviewer: (Excitedly) Ladies and gentlemen, today, we have brought the creator iPhones, the founder of Apple, Mr Steve Jobs!

interviewee: Hello everyone, my name is Steve Jobs, I am the founder of Apple company, who created iPhones that only cost $400 which works for calling, messaging, mailing, sending text messages, downloading music, downloading movies, downloading games, and applications.

interviewer: hehe, thank you for your brief introduction, Mr Steve Jobs. We have prepared few questions that we really want to know about. What did you do in your early life that made you so successful? Were you different from everyone else? If so, how?

Interviewee: In the early years, I was just ordinary and wasn't so special. I was successful only because Stephen Wozniak, Ronald Wayne, and Mike Markkula they all helped me finding the Apple Company. We first made our Macintosh, and without my learnings of calligraphy from my college years Apple couldn't have made our letters proportional in Macbooks only sold for $1000. You can easily order them through free shipment by signing up in www.apple.com. If you are interested, please access our site and ....

Interviewer: On to the next question. Why did you create an iPad? Isn't it the same as iPod Touch increased in size?

Interviewee: No no no no no. Who said iPad is just an iTouch increased in size? iPad has fabulous features. You can listen to music, watch videos, rotate screen, zoom in through screen, access the iTunes store, and download applications!

Interviewer: But Mr Steve Jobs, isn't that same as iPod Tou...

Interviewee: On to the next question please. I don't have all day.

Interviewer: Third question is what is the point of making iPhone 3G if you were going to make iPhone 3Gs? That drove a lot of customers crazy because few weeks after they had bought an iPhone, the 3Gs came out!

Interviewee: Oh that, I forgot to add the video camera onto iPhone 3G, so I just added it to 3Gs.

Interviewer: So it was an accident?

Interviewee: DUH

Interviewer: Alright, then... Our next question is why did you make Mac only run some softwares while not allowing it to run on softwares accessible for Microsoft Windows?

Interviewee: I like keeping things unique.

Interviewer: But then customers won't like the way it doesn't run many programs!

Interviewee: I don't care. By making unique softwares, I make a lot of money because it requires customers to buy more softwares made by Apple!

Interviewer: O...kay... Thank you... Onto the next question! What kind of product is Apple going to make after the iPad? Is Apple done now?

Interviewee: Ah! I knew someone would ask that question! I brought a sample of what we are working on. I have brought a product that would be released soon. This is called iSneakers! It is for music listening runners. If you simply turn it on, you may listen to it while running! If you get tired and want to have a rest by the bench, you can simply separate the device and use it. This device is like everything in your tiny hands. This iSneakers has fabulous features. You can listen to music, watch videos, rotate screen, zoom in through screen, access the iTunes store, and download applications!

Interviewer: Hey isn't that iPod Touch just attached to sneakers?

Interviewee: NO! This is iSneakers. NOT iTouch.

Interviewer: Could I see that please?

Interviewee: No.

Interviewer: Okay... Mr Steve Jobs, why is there no usb port for iPad even though it is supposed to be computer with touch screen? All computers have usb ports.

Interviewee: Because it's called an iPad not a computer. Of course, iPad is much better than usb ports. iPad is $499 while ordinary Macbooks cost $999. You can buy them simply by ordering them through free shipment signing up in www.apple.com. If you are interested, please access our site and...

Interviewer: Mr Steve Jobs, please don't advertise in our...

Interviewee: I'm not done. Access our website in www.apple.com and order an iPad!
Next question?

Interviewer: Yes Mr Steve Jobs, about flash thing. It's been a big issue since long time ago. Surfing through websites without flash is pretty bad. Are you ever going to allow flash playback to work on your products?

Interviewee: Flash playback isn't the biggest problem we have to fix right now, so I will lay that off till later after we fix our bigger problems.

Interviewer: What are Apple's bigger problems than adobe flash playback?

Interviewee: Viral infections and many more. This wasn't really an issues to us before because our marketing was below 10% due to other Microsoft computers. Now we've reached higher than 20%, we are the next target for the hackers. You can simply help us by ordering through free shipment by signing up in www.apple.com. If you are interested, please access our site and order many products! It will be of...

Interviewer: Mr Steve Jobs, you need to stop with your advertisements. It is really annoying for us record all this with your...

Interviewee: I'm not done! It will be of great help if we make enough products sold, then we would get the adobe flash playback and the virus protections done!

Interviewer: Okay! We will conclude our interview with the last question. Do you have anything more to say Mr Steve Jobs to everyone of Apple customers and people uninterested in Apple products?

Interviewee: Yes, I have tons of things to say to everyone watching this show! The new Macbook Pro family came out, buy the newest Macbook Pros! 13-inch starts at $1199, 15-inch at $1799, 17-inch at $2299! Get the newest Macbook Pro! You can easily order them through free shipment by signing up in www.apple.com. If you are interested, please access our site and get the newest products! Please have more interest in the Interviewer: Mr Steve Jobs! We have to end our show now!

Interviewee: Yes Yes I'm almost done. Please have more interest in the new up coming product iSneakers! It is the finest thing you can ever wear. You can listen to music, watch videos, rotate screen, zoom in through screen, access the iTunes store, and download applications! Also the new product iT-Shirt only at price of $599 coming out! With iSweater, you can do many things! You can listen to music, (Interviewer reads his lines) watch videos, rotate screen, zoom in through screen, access the iTunes store, and download applications!

Interviewer: CUT CUT CUT (stand up and make the hand motion)
